Acceptable Use Policy

Posted: January 20, 2019
Effective: January 20, 2019

All users of the DynaMaker cloud Service (the "Service") must follow this Acceptable Use Policy when using the Service. If you violate this policy, or if you violate the Terms of Use specified at dynamaker.com/legal, we may suspend or terminate your account.

Prohibited Content

Please don't use the Service to build anything anything illegal, enraging or dangerous. You may not use the service to build or provide:

- Illegal goods or services

- Pornographic content or products

- Weapons

- Production of cryptocurrencies

- Ads or advertisement

Prohibited Actions

You may not:

- Access the Service with another software outside the Service designated APIs

- Host content on our servers for any purpose other than the Service intended purpose

- Share your password

- Send bulk or spam emails through our quotation mailing services