SkyMaker AB operates several different Services and Sites for enabling Mass Customization and automated workflows for custom quotes and orders. Here follows our policy for handling your Personal Data.

Information We Collect

Registration information - When you register for an account at any of the Sites or Services you need to provide some basic information such as your name, email, password, company and location.

Billing and communications information - When purchasing our Services you may need to provide us with payment and billing information, such as your billing address and credit card details. Records of billings and transactions will be maintained by SkyMaker.

Information we process on your behalf - To use our Services the usernames and email may need to be provided by the end user. An example is the automation of custom orders where the end user needs to register some kind of identification for the quotation.

Log data - Our servers keep log files for access and usage of the Services

Use of Personal Information

We may need to use your Personal Information to several different reasons, including:

- To handle payment and billing for the Services
- To send notifications to you about the Services
- To provide support and improve the Services
- To communicate with you about your accounts and provide customer support.
- To meet legal requirements

Cookies and Tracking

Cookies are files with small amount of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a web site and stored on your computer's hard drive.

The Sites and the Services use cookies for various reasons, including handling authentication and plan selection. With cookies disabled the Sites and the Services may not work as expected.

The Sites and the Services may also use cookies for statistics for us to monitor when and how the Sites and Services are being used.

Changes

We reserve the right to update or change our Privacy Policy at any time and you should check this Privacy Policy periodically. Your continued use of the Sites or the Services after we post any modifications to the Privacy Policy on this page will constitute your acknowledgment of the modifications and your consent to abide and be bound by the modified Privacy Policy.
